MESSAGES FROM THE DIRECTOR & PRESIDENT

DR. KEVIN JOHNSON DIRECTOR

September was an exceptional month for the Spelman College Glee Club. With new members getting acclimated through events like Sisters Social, the Glee Club began to come into its sound. We are so thrilled for the upcoming events for this semester, including performing Mahler's 8th Symphony with the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra in November, and the Annual Christmas Carol Concert with the Morehouse College Glee Club.

JESSICA HANNSBERRY PRESIDENT

In September we have continued getting ready for the Mahler 8 performance with the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra as well as beginning rehearsing songs for our annual Christmas Carol concert. We also had our annual Sister Social event, which was an amazing time of bonding between our returning members and new singers.

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

Greetings Glee sisters!

September has truly been a month to behold. We kicked off the month by performing in Spelman's "A Day In Your Life" program, encouraging high school students to come to Spelman. The culmination of this month's activities was our annual "Sister's Social" event, where the entire Glee Club spent the night bonding over music, food, and so many unique experiences. In rehearsal, we have continued to prepare Gustav Mahler's 8th Symphony for our performance with the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra & Chorus, the Morehouse College Glee Club, and Gwinnett Young Singers in November. In this issue, please enjoy a look into the Glee Club's recent events, and a special look into Glee sibling relationships outside of Spelman Lane.

Best Wishes,

Shelby Richardson, C'2021

MONTHLY HIGHLIGHT: SISTER SOCIAL

"This year's Sister Social, themed 'Glee's Night In,' was a huge hit, cultivating sisterhood and friendship in the Glee Club, and true demonstration of the talent in the first-year class. We as upperclassmen got to support and celebrate our new Glee members and all that they will bring to the Glee Club."

SHELBY MARCEE, VICE PRESIDENT C'2021

SPELMANITE SPOTLIGHT: SISTER'S EDITION

An Everlasting Bond: Desiree Banks C'2020 & Christian Kenny C'2019

Desiree and Christian met at Sisters Social in Fall 2016. They were paired together that night. Both being Soprano 2s, Christian helped Desiree learn the music and get through freshman year.

Desiree says, “She made me feel like I was a part of her Spelman family, and invited me out to different events, birthday parties and get togethers whenever they happened.” Although Christian graduated last year, the pair still remain close.
