

WORLD LANGUAGES AND CULTURES

BECOME

A SPANISH

MAJOR

COURSES OFFERED ABROAD FOR MAJORS

First summer abroad: 303 or 306
(+1 credit for service learning)

Second summer abroad: 351 or 352 or 353 or 354
(+1 credit for service learning)
(5 credits each Summer)

Semester abroad: 2 courses at 350 or 450 level
(language courses 303, 306, 306 must be taken at Spelman)
(8 Credits Total)

THEMATIC AREAS

351/451. Intellectual Traditions of Women: Representation, Voices, Silence, Collective Memory, Oral Traditions, Femininities and Queer Identities

352/452. National and Transnational Identities: Migration; Negrismo, Indigenismo, Indianismo; Negritude, Créolité, Négritude, Antillanité; (Neo) Colonialism; Diasporas and Latinx

353/453. Linguistics, Professional, Cultural, and Artistic Expressions: Visual Arts, Film, Music, Museum, Cartography, News, Mass Media and Social Media

354/454. Dynamic Relations of Political Power: Imperialism, Dictatorships, (Neo)Colonialism, Democracies and Civic Society (Social Movements, NGOs)

Major in Spanish 40
 Nine courses above 202 (9x4 credits) 36
 Service Learning while abroad or at Spelman 2
 Capstone Project/Thesis Portfolio 2

Core Required Courses (all 3)
 SPA 303 Conversation
 SPA 306 Advanced Grammar and Composition
 SPA 308 Intro to Literary and Cultural Studies

Major Required Courses (all 4)
 SPA 351 Intellectual Traditions of Women
 SPA 352 National and Traditional Identities
 SPA 353 Linguistics, Professional, Cultural, and Artistic Expressions
 SPA 354 Dynamic Relations of Political Power

Major Required Courses (choose 2)
 SPA 451, 452, 453, or 454

Other Required Credits
 SPA 300 and 301 - Service Learning Abroad or at Spelman
 (1 credit each summer abroad or service learning associated with a course)

SPA 440 and 441 - Capstone
 (1 credit each semester of the Senior year)