

WELCOME

There's so much to see and do in the ATL Airport District!
Here are a few hand-picked local spots we know you'll love.

THINGS TO DO

You're likely familiar with all that Downtown Atlanta has to offer, but did you know that there are plenty of exciting things to do right here in the District? Within a five-mile radius of the world's most traveled airport are several unique attractions that double as event venues. Explore Atlanta's aviation history and host a reception in an airplane converted into an event space at the Delta Flight Museum. Or treat your group to luxurious pampering at The Wellness Spot – recognized as one of Atlanta's best spas - followed by an intimate gathering in their elegant private room. Read more about the many opportunities for memorable group outings and venues for micro-events below!

Delta Flight Museum

Experience aviation history in style at the Delta Flight Museum. Housed in renovated 1940s hangars, their modern design seamlessly merges with historic charm. With 68,000 sq ft of event space, the museum can cater gatherings of any size. Come explore the past, present, and future of flight.

Gateway Center Arena

The Gateway Center Arena @ College Park is your destination for sports and entertainment. Home to the WNBA's Atlanta Dream and NBA G-League's College Park SkyHawks, this state-of-the-art venue offers 5,000 seats for thrilling games and flexible spaces for unforgettable experiences.

Porsche Experience Center

Immerse yourself in the ultimate driving experience at the Porsche Experience Center, where flexible event spaces boast breathtaking views of the two test tracks. Whether it's a crucial meeting, a social affair, or an educational seminar, this venue promises to elevate every occasion with luxury, adrenaline, and unparalleled sophistication.

The Wellness Spot

Well-being meets luxury at The Wellness Spot in Historic Downtown College Park. This sanctuary offers premier wellness amenities, rejuvenating day spa services, and an intimate venue for private events. Discover a sanctuary where health, relaxation, and community come together seamlessly.

GROUP ACTIVITIES

Atlanta Printmakers Studio

At the Atlanta Printmakers Studio in Hapeville, artists of all levels can explore various printmaking techniques and let their imaginations run wild with ink and paper.

Academy Theatre

Experience a live performance at the Academy Theatre. From compelling dramas to hilarious comedies, this historic venue in Hapeville hosts a variety of captivating shows starring local talent.

Chick-fil-A Backstage Tour

Get an exclusive look into the inner workings of America's favorite chicken restaurant at Chick-fil-A's headquarters in College Park. Learn about Truett Cathy's humble beginnings and commitment to service and quality that has made it a beloved institution.

Historic College Park Golf Course

Experience golf at its finest at the College Park Golf Course. Nestled in scenic surroundings, this 9-hole course offers challenges for players of all levels. Come tee off amidst lush greens and tranquil landscapes for a memorable day on the fairways.

RESTAURANTS

The District is full of eclectic dining options that span the spectrum, from local mom-and-pops to familiar chains, traditional to creative, international to down-home, and even private (and semi-private) event spaces available for groups.

Some of the most exceptional Black-owned eateries in Atlanta are found in Historic Downtown College Park. Indulge in Gullah-Geechee soul food, all-day brunch, elevated tapas, and more!

The Corner Grille

Serving traditional American fare with Cajun influences in a modern, casual setting with a private upstairs dining room for groups.

Virgil's Gullah Kitchen & Bar

Proudly honoring America's oldest Black culture, Virgil's is known for authentic Gullah Geechee soul food dishes and signature cocktails.

Aye Tea Elle

Located just off Main Street, this restaurant elevates the dining experience with delectable tapas, inventive cocktails, and a sophisticated atmosphere.

The Breakfast Boys

An all-day breakfast and brunch eatery serving up familiar favorites with a twist in an environment designed for good vibes.

The two-mile stretch of Virginia Avenue offers plentiful dining options, from Southern soul food to authentic Ethiopian cuisine and everything in between.

Bole Ethiopian Restaurant

Sample traditional Ethiopian cuisine right here in the District. Their private dining room is perfect for groups.

Manchester Arms Pub

Enjoy the laid-back outdoor patio or opt for a private dining experience upstairs at this homey pub nestled on a tree-lined College Park street.

Brass Tap

With an impressive craft beer selection on draught and a well-rounded menu of bar favorites, there is something for everyone at this friendly Hapeville hangout.

Pit Boss BBQ

Don't leave Atlanta without sampling some of the best Southern pit-style BBQ and delicious homestyle sides in the city!

A variety of dining experiences can be found in Hapeville's artful downtown, ranging from upscale to laid-back fare.

Paper Plane

The chic family-owned Thai restaurant is a neighborhood favorite, offering flavorful dishes, craft cocktails, an inviting outdoor patio, and an upstairs private event space.

Restaurant 356

For fine dining with a twist, venture to the Porsche Experience Center Atlanta and dine in the facility's semi-private space that overlooks the test tracks and neighboring runways of Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport.

Volare Bistro

With an emphasis on wine selection and seasonal menus, Volare Bistro offers a casual fine dining experience in the heart of downtown Hapeville.

Junior's Pizza

This New York-style pizzeria with retro vibes is a crowd-pleaser. Customize a slice or whole pie. They even have vegan and gluten-free options!

This is just a taste of what's on the menu in the District. Continue exploring the diverse culinary options here.

Be sure to tag us!

@ATLdistrict

@ATLDistrictCVB

@ATLdistrict

ATL Airport District