Frequently Asked Questions:

- 1.) Is there a minimum cumulative grade point average to be considered for the UGA/Spelman Feeder Program?
No.
- 2.) When will I know if I've been nominated for the UGA/Spelman Feeder Program?
Nominated students are notified by the third week of November.

- 3.) How many students will be nominated for the feeder program?
It depends on the candidate pool.
- 4.) Does the feeder application require letters of recommendation?
No.
- 5.) If I am experiencing technical difficulties or if the file size is too large to send via email, may I submit the application personally to Dean Neely?
No.
- 6.) Who do I follow up with regarding questions about the feeder program?
Dean Neely at dneely@spelman.edu or (404) 270-5701.
- 7.) If I am planning to defer, do I still qualify for the feeder program?

Disclaimers:

- 1.) The UGA/Spelman Feeder Program is a completely unrelated process from the UGA graduate school application process. This means a student can be fully admitted to UGA however, not be nominated for the feeder program.
- 2.) If you are granted admission into a UGA graduate school program, but not a feeder program nominee, you may inquire about other mediums of funding at greruit@uga.edu
- 3.) The UGA/Spelman Feeder Program is a completely separate process from the UGA Future Scholars Visitation Program.
- 4.) Applications submitted via DropBox, GoogleDocs, as a Microsoft Word File Folder or any alternative format other than an attached PDF to dneely@spelman.edu, will NOT be considered.
