

UVA BATTEN'S HBCU FELLOWSHIP

The UVA Batten School will award up to two HBCU Fellowships for students entering the Master of Public Policy program in Fall 2025. HBCU Fellows will receive a scholarship of $20,000 (Virginia residents) or $45,000 (non-VA residents) per academic year. To be eligible for the HBCU Fellowship, applicants must have earned their undergraduate degree from an HBCU. No separate application is required. Students are eligible to receive additional scholarships on top of the HBCU Fellowship.

EXPLORE BATTEN'S MPP

REQUEST MORE INFO

MAKE AN APPOINTMENT

The mission of the Batten School is to develop ethical and enlightened leaders to solve the world's toughest public policy challenges. Through training in data analysis and critical leadership skills, Batten is pioneering a new model of leadership and policy education to help transform students into change agents, who are comfortable and effective in reaching diverse and divided communities in an uncertain world.

Connect With Us:

UVA Batten School
235 McCormick Road
Charlottesville, VA 22904

434-924-0812

battenadmissions@virginia.edu